

student name

period

date

1. The Photographic Eye Study Guide

How is a photograph different than seeing the world directly?

Draw an example of a horizontal rectangle:

Draw an example of a vertical rectangle.

Name the 4 variables that photographers must control:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

Another word for horizontal is: _____

Another word for vertical is _____

Here is a picture of a couple kissing in front of the Eiffel Tower in Paris. Draw three sketches of the scene as a far shot, a medium shot, and a close-up.

When too much light enters the camera for a proper exposure, or the image is too light, it is called :

When not enough light enters the camera for a proper exposure or the image is too dark, it is called:

Controlling the sharpness of the background relative to the foreground is called:

The Japanese term that describes the quality of the out-of-focus background is:

The color term that describes the purity or intensity of a color is

The color term that describes removing color is
