

student name

period

date

Classifying Type Study Guide

The method used to classify fonts that share similar qualities is called

_____.

Name the 7 major typeface groups used by iMAG.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

7. _____

A type family variation that slants to the right and contains some character changes often used as a companion to Roman typefaces is _____.

A type family variation that slants to the right used as a companion to sans serif type is called _____.

All the weight and style variations of a particular typeface is called a _____.

Name the type of fonts that should never be set in all upper-case _____ and _____

How many spaces should be used after periods, colons, exclamation points, and question marks? _____

Name the proper alternative to using underlines in text. _____

How much space should be used for a paragraph indention? _____

What is an ellipsis ... used to indicate? _____

Give an example of the proper use of a hyphen. _____

Give an example of the proper use of an en dash. _____

Give an example of the proper use of an em dash. _____

